Salutation

The 16th edition of IMTEX - Indian Metal-cutting Machine Tool Exhibition with International Participation once again proved the optimism and sustained business expectations that the Indian manufacturing can offer to the global machine tool industry. IMTEX 2013 was organized from 24 – 30 January 2013 at Bangalore International Exhibition Centre, covering a net area of 30,800 sqm. The exhibition featured the major companies both from India and overseas and hosted 980 exhibitors from 26 countries and visitors from 57 countries.

Despite the downturn in the manufacturing industry, IMTEX 2013 once again proved its strengths and created the buzz with a large number of potential business visitors visiting the show. The total visitors for the 7 day exhibition were 84,000 marking it another successful edition in the IMTEX series.

IMTEX 2013 became the most appropriate forum for launching many new technologies to the Indian manufacturing industry. The visitors could witness latest innovations in machine tools ranging from small cutting tools to large machineries to be used in cutting technology. The exhibition was an ultimate facilitator of B2B cooperation between manufacturers and users showcasing exhaustive range of innovations and technological refinements in the complete product segment of metal-cutting machine tools from India as well as all over the world. There were also displays of LIVE Technologies for providing an edge to manufacturing which was the major attraction of the show.

IMTEX 2013 was a trend changer in the Indian manufacturing sector, as the visitors were looking for machines catering to new and emerging segments such as Energy, Aerospace, Medical Technology and Defense. These exhibits gained the attraction of visitors and excited them to visit the show. The new technologies displayed at IMTEX 2013 will play a pivotal role in enhancing competitiveness, enabling the development of quality products and excellence in output of the manufacturing industry.

Even the small machine tool manufacturers brought in their best technologies and improved aesthetic looking machines in IMTEX 2013 which was another highlight of the exhibition.

The next IMTEX, will be held from (Thursday) 22nd January to (Wednesday) 28th January 2015 (To be confirmed) Members of IMTMA are committed to ensure the ongoing development of IMTEX in response to public expectation and we look forward to receiving your continuing support and guidance.

JAGRUTI & UDAAN: To familiarize engineering students with the machine tool industry and the technological happenings in this industry segment, IMTMA organized the 5th "JAGRUTI – IMTMA Youth Programme", with support from "UDAAN" members. This unique initiative was organised during IMTEX 2013 and Tooltech 2013 on 26 and 27 January 2013 at BIEC. The programme was attended by 52 mechanical engineering students representing 32 engineering institutions, from all across India. It comprised a comprehensive guided tour of IMTEX 2013 and Tooltech 2010 as also a unique facilitation of IMTMA's state-of-the-art 'Technology Centre' and 'Productivity Institute'.

ACADEMIA – INDUSTRY PAVILION: IMTEX 2013 provided an opportunity for Indian academic and R&D institutions to showcase their capabilities and R&D activities related to machine tools & manufacturing engineering fields. 16 institutions from all over India showcased the exhaustive range of innovations and technological refinements in the complete segment of metal-cutting machine tools.

ISMT: Indian Machine Tool Manufacturers' Association (IMTMA) organized its 5th international seminar on Machining Technologies on 23 January, 2013. With the theme, 'Power in manufacturing growth and competitiveness', the seminar provided manufacturers and users of machine tools with the latest metal-cutting solutions. The event witnessed delegates at the likes of CEOs, senior executives, consultants, R&D specialists, and technologists from across a wide cross section of the metal working industry.

INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR ON MACHINING TECHNOLOGIES
23 January 2013, Bangalore

Inaugural & Keynote Session

Welcome address:

Mr. Vikram Sirur, President, IMTMA

Address on Seminar Methodology:

Mr. N. Umesh, Chairman, IMTMA Regional Council - South

Key note Address - 1:

'Continental Drift in Machine Tools', Dr. Frank Brinken, Starrag Group Holding AG, Switzerland

Keynote Address - 2:

'Advances in High Precision Machining', Dr. Anil Srivastava, Chief Technology Officer, Techsolve Inc., USA

INDUSTRY DELEGATION VISIT: A wide range of Delegations from various user industries also graced the event by visiting IMTEX 2013. IMTEX 2013 saw delegation visiting from Automotive Component Manufacturers Association of India (ACMA), Indian Space Research Centre Satellite Centre (ISRO), Bangalore Chamber of Industry and Commerce, Laghu Udyog Bharti-Karnataka, Indian Railways etc.

Quotes

This is an excellent way to show case India's capacity in Machine Tool sector. This is a great platform for foreign companies to exhibit their products. The Centre itself is a fantastic facility and shows the farsightedness of IMTMA

Mr. M.F. Farooqui,
Secretary, Heavy Industries,
Government of India

"I am extremely impressed with the facilities and the organization of the expo. Also very happy to see a positive interest from the exhibitors in spite of a slowdown in the industry and finally I was glad to see some very bright experts in the industry who will take it to the next stage of evolution of the Indian Machine Tool Industry. My compliments and best wishes to all

Mr. Ravi Kant,
Vice-Chairman, Tata Motors

IMTEX this year has significantly leveled up both in terms of technology and in terms of space & visual appeal. Keep it up

Mr. K.G. Mohan Kumar,
TKAP, Bangalore.

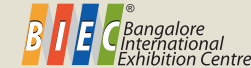

I have been very impressed with IMTEX 2013 This is my first visit. The technology provided by the Indian manufacturers has been at a high level and could well find a market in Europe

Mr. Geoff Noon
CELIMO / MTA, London, UK

Congratulations to IMTEX for organizing such a good event. It's my 4th year and I see, there is a very good improvement. I wish best of luck for the future
